Any real red blooded story about an honest to "Gawd" Big Hearted Fish would have to occur right out in the depth of the great open country more commonly referred to as " Gods Country."

Now of course there were times when thing were not done on the level. Infact, Jerry Squirrel had just finished burying a winter supply of nuts when Eczema Cat, the black scrouge of the country, toddled along and demanded that he dig them up for him. It was only a short time later, that he confronted Percy and Esmeralda Black birds and stripped them of their precious jewels.

It seems that this scroundrel Eczema Was beginning to possess the opinion that he could get away with most anything. Late that afternoon he spied Hartsooth mouse and his precious sweetheart "Tweedle Dee" declaring their love.

It was then that all the base, baseness arose in the black heart of the scroundrel Eczema, and he brutally forces poor little Hartsooth from the arms of his "Tweedle Dee" and makes him walk a plank right in the cold green ocean.

"Hartsooth" lands on the ocean bed, brutally bruised and sadly disillusioned. For a short time, he is ill at ease--then gradually he becomes in full possesion of himself, but is unable to realise where he is. So what was he to do?

Well, in the meantime Eczema had carried the little precious "Tweedle Dee" to the old forsaken cabin, way back among the pines where everything was silent, even the roaring forest.

Then the black merciless Creature demanded and demanded---and demanded. Poor helpless "Tweedle Dee" offered him her precious pearls, but he demanded a greater price. Oh! If only her faithful Hartsooth were only there to protecther hair name.

Oh.! Why? are men like that?

Then the impossile happened. Little Hartsooth pulled himself completely together. But how could he ever get out of the deep cold ocean. Then he met his old fried"Filler Fish" whom he had fed and clothed when he was merely a baby. Sure enough Filler had not forgotten him and they toddled to the recur of his sweetie.

Sure enough, he found them right in the old cabin, immediately a terrific struggle followed. It was long after that Hartsooth finally overcame his opponent. The lovers were united and the rest was easy.

"YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE CRAZY TO BE IN LOVE,
BUT IT HELPS."
